

Project Manager Office

Supporting the needs of project management, this workspace is used as a consultative office—relying on a degree of “out of the line of sight” to encourage quick, candid interactions. The project manager’s office should include minimal long-term storage, although some records retention is required. The opposite side of this station is an individual workspace, or touchdown area, that may be dedicated to transient staff.

U.S. List Prices

- Compose® Workstations Starting at $25,927
- Zody® Task Seating Starting at $742
- Zody® Guest Seating Starting at $545